For Standing Up for Our Kids!

Minnesota's future depends on giving our children the quality education they deserve.

Senator Terri Bonoff stood up to union pressure and authored a bi-partisan reform to allow school districts to recruit top graduates from the best universities in the country to teach in Minnesota's most challenging schools. (S.F. 2757, 2/22/2010 - Chief Author Sen. Bonoff)

Unions looking to protect their turf and shield underperforming teachers were able to defeat the reform, but Bonoff's bill proves that she cares more about improving our schools than satisfying special interests.
